The Graduate Program in Translation and Interpretation (GPTI) at National Taiwan University (NTU) announces 1 full-time Chinese-English Interpreting faculty position. Initial appointment will begin on February 1, 2015.

I. General requirements: Except as otherwise specified, minimum requirements include a PhD in a relevant field and a strong publication record. All full-time faculty members are required to teach courses in both the graduate and undergraduate T&I programs and are obliged to direct theses, mentor students, and serve on various university and program committees.

II. Openings:
Track — Interpreting: 1 full-time position
Additional requirements:
- Teaching and research expertise in interpreting
- A minimum of 3 years of professional experience in Chinese-English/English-Chinese conference interpreting Specialties sought:
- Conference Interpreting

III. Salary and Rank: commensurate with qualifications. Initial salary per month ranges from approximately 69,000NTD (ca. 2,400USD; subject to exchange rates) for assistant professors to 90,000 (ca. 3,100USD) for full professors with a regular teaching load (9 hours per week for assistant and associate professors, 8 for full professors), with additional remuneration for additional teaching hours and certain administrative assignments. Other benefits include (family) health insurance, research grants and awards (on a competitive basis), and university housing (subject to availability).

IV. Application Materials:
1. A curriculum vitae (including list of publications)
2. A photocopy of PhD diploma (Candidates who will receive their PhD degree by January 31, 2015 can submit a formal university-issued temporary diploma)
3. Proof of past/current employment (if any)
4. Proof of relevant professional experience
5. Statement of research interests and a description of courses taught
6. Transcript or academic report from the highest academic institution (original copy)
7. Two letters of recommendation
8. Publications within the last 5 years (PhD dissertation included)

V. Application Deadline and General Information:
All applicants must e-mail a completed application form to Ms Vicky Li (vickyli@ntu.edu.tw) and send hard copies of the application materials by August 15, 2014 to:

    No. 1, Sec. 4, Roosevelt Rd., Taipei 10617, Taiwan
    Graduate Program in Translation and Interpretation
    College of Liberal Arts, National Taiwan University

Short-listed candidates will be interviewed in Taipei. All information provided will be treated with strict confidentiality. National Taiwan University appointments are made on a non-discriminatory basis.

International applicants must comply with local labor laws and meet immigration requirements. Other college and university regulations may apply. Please direct inquiries to Ms Vicky Li (vickyli@ntu.edu.tw). For this announcement and other information about GPTI, check: http://www.forex.ntu.edu.tw/gpti/riki.php?id=ntutiprogram&CID=1